

Encliandra Type Fuchsia Varieties - For the 2016 Season

Abbreviations T. Tube S. Sepals C. corolla or Petals * Interspecific Hybrid

- ALAN JACKSON (Evans 2004) T, S, & C - orangey red. Strong grower. Upright.
- BRIAN BREARY (Breary 1995) T, S, & C - bright deep pink. Large flowers for this type. Upright.
- CORAL BABY (Drapkin 1989) T, S, & C - bright orangey red. Upright growth.
- FIONA PITT (Saunders 1989) T, S, & C - shades of pink. Strong grower.
- GINA BOWMAN (Morrison 2004) Chance seedling from Marlies de Keijzer. Pinky red flowers and silvery green foliage. The same colouring as parent but both flowers and foliage are much larger.
- JIDDLES (Iddles) T, S, & C - white. Pale green leaves.
- JUST PINK (Strickland 1997) T, S, & C - light pink. Foliage is dark green and provides a striking contrast with the light pink flowers.
- KAREN ISLES (Strickland 1997) T, S, & C - red. Large flowers for this type.
- KATINKA* (Goedman 1989) Hybrid of F. ravenii x F. microphylla subsp. microphylla. T, S, & C - bright scarlet. Larger than average flowers.
- LITTLE JESSICA (Garcia 2014) T, S, & C - white. Self branching, will make a good shape.
- LOTTIE HOBBY (Edwards 1839) T, S, & C - deep red. Bushy growth. Hardy.
- LOXHORE LULLABY (Wright 1987) T, S, & C - bright pink.
- MARLES de KEIJZER* (de Keijzer 1999) Hybrid of F. encliandra x F. thymifolia subsp. thymifolia. Red flowers and silvery green foliage.
- MICROCHIP (Fleming 1990) T & S - pink. C - paler pink.
- MIEKE SARTON (de Keijzer 1995) T, S, & C - orange. Upright.
- MRS LEE BELTON (Morrison 2006) T, S, & C - red. Upright growth. Flowers well.
- NEOPOLITAIN (Clarke 1984) T, S, & C - red. Red Pink & white flowers. Upright
- NICKI FENWICK-RAVEN (Morrison 2008) (B.F.S. Reg. No. 41) Flowers start white aging to pink then red. It is possible to see all three colours on the plant at the same time.
- OBCYLIN* (Beije 1999) Hybrid of F. obconica x F. cylindracea. T, S, & C peach. A good colour for this type. Self branching.
- O' CAROL (Strickland 2008) T & S & C pale pink
- OOSJE* (Van de Grijp 1973) Hybrid of F. cylindracea x F. microphylla subsp. microphylla. T & S - red. C - white ageing to red. Very small flowers.
- OULTON EMPRESS (Payne 1998) T, S, & C - pinky white. Mid green glossy leaves. Upright
- OULTON RED IMP (Payne 1998) T, S, & C - red. Mid green glossy leaves. Upright.
- OULTON TRAVELLERS REST (Payne 1998) T, S, & C - pink. Medium to large flowers. Dark green foliage.
- ORANGE STAR (Robson 2002) T, S, & C - Orange. Upright growth.
- RADINGS GERDA (Reimann 1984) T, S, & C - lavender. Upright growth.
- RADINGS INGE (Reimann 1980) T & S - red tipped cream. C - orange. Lax.
- RADINGS MICHELLE (Reimann) T, S, & C - pinky white. Mid green glossy leaves. Upright
- SIBORET (de Boer 2000) T, S, & C - white with a hint of lavender.
- T.S.J (Strickland 1997) T, S, & C - red. Good all rounder.

WALDFEE (Travis 1973) T, S, & C lilac pink. Upright vigorous grower

Encliandra Fuchsia Species

F. microphylla subsp. aprica (Breedlove 1969) T, S, & C - deep pink. Small dark green glossy foliage.

F. obconica (Breedlove 1969 - Mexico and Central America) T, S & C - white. Tiny flowers singly in the leaf axils. Black shiny berries. Lightish green foliage. Strong bushy growth.